the 1990s, the U.S. has been the only country to have a significant increase in the number of people who are obese. In 1990, 15 percent of the U.S. population was obese, but by 2000, that number had risen to 23 percent. And the trend is continuing. In 2008, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported that 31.3 percent of the U.S. population was obese, up from 26.6 percent in 2004. The increase in obesity is a major public health concern because it is a leading cause of heart disease, diabetes, and other chronic diseases. The CDC also reports that obesity is a leading cause of death in the U.S., with more than 280,000 people dying each year from complications related to obesity.

5 RP fishermen rescued at sea

By G. R. R. R.

Five Filipino fishermen were rescued at sea by a US Navy helicopter on Monday. The rescue took place in the Philippine Sea, about 100 miles off the coast of Luzon. The fishermen were on board a small boat that had been sighted by a US Navy patrol plane. The helicopter landed on the boat and rescued the five fishermen. They were all in good health and were taken to a US Navy ship for medical treatment.

Troops kill Abu leaders, 8 gunmen

MANILA, July 25 (AP) — Philippine troops killed eight Abu Sayyab leaders and eight gunmen in a surprise attack on a hideout in the southern Philippines, officials said Tuesday.

The attack, which took place in a remote area of the island of Mindanao, was part of a larger operation to wipe out the Abu Sayyab group, a militant organization that has been active in the region for years.

The troops, who were part of a special forces unit, were able to infiltrate the hideout and catch the leaders by surprise. The group was reportedly planning a series of attacks on government and military targets.

The deaths of the leaders are seen as a significant blow to the Abu Sayyab group, which has been struggling to maintain its operations in the region. The group has been responsible for several bombings and kidnappings in the past.

The Philippine government has been working to bring the Abu Sayyab group to justice for years. The attack on Tuesday is seen as a major step in that effort.

Tanker making U-turn hits 2 vehicles, 4 hurt

By Henry J. Corcoran

A large tanker truck making a U-turn on a city street in Philadelphia last night struck two vehicles, causing four people to be injured. The truck, which was carrying a large amount of liquid, was involved in a collision with a car and a van. The car was flipped over, and the van was crushed. The four people injured were taken to the hospital, and the driver of the tanker truck was arrested. The incident occurred on a busy street in the city, and the area was closed off for several hours. The truck was towed away, and the liquid was cleaned up. The incident is being investigated by the police, and the driver is facing charges of reckless driving and endangering the safety of others.

AHEAD OF DECISION DAY

Petron agrees to scale down ops at oil depot

By Peter J. Brown

Petron has agreed to scale down its operations at an oil depot in Philadelphia, a move that could help ease concerns about the safety of the facility. The depot, which is located near the city center, has been the subject of several complaints from residents about noise, traffic, and the risk of spills. Petron, which is a subsidiary of the PECO Energy Company, has agreed to reduce the amount of oil it stores at the depot and to implement stricter safety measures. The agreement was reached after a series of meetings between Petron and city officials, and it is expected to be finalized soon. The city has been pushing for a complete shutdown of the depot, but Petron has argued that it is a necessary part of the city's energy infrastructure. The agreement is a compromise, but it is seen as a positive step towards addressing the concerns of the community.

City folk, militants make final appeal for a veto

By Peter J. Brown

City residents and militants have made a final appeal for a veto of a proposed development in Philadelphia. The development, which is a large-scale urban renewal project, has been the subject of a long and contentious debate. Residents are concerned about the impact of the project on the neighborhood, including increased traffic, noise, and the loss of historic buildings. Militants are also opposed to the project, arguing that it is a symbol of corporate greed and that it will lead to the displacement of the poor. The city council is scheduled to vote on the project soon, and the residents and militants are urging council members to veto the project. They are also holding protests and rallies to draw attention to their cause. The city council has a difficult decision to make, as the project has the potential to revitalize the neighborhood but also has the potential to cause significant harm.

Yap's Philtrust drops bid to acquire PBCom

By Steven C. Norcia

Continuing shift in the funding

Philtrust Financial Corp. has dropped its bid to acquire PBCom, a move that could reshape the Philippine banking landscape. The bid, announced last month, was part of a larger strategy by Yap to expand its financial services footprint in the region. However, regulatory hurdles and concerns over the transaction's impact on the local market have led to its withdrawal. PBCom, a leading digital banking platform, has expressed interest in exploring other strategic options. The deal's collapse marks a significant setback for Yap's expansion plans and highlights the challenges faced by foreign investors in the Philippine financial sector.

East Metro profit down 45% in Q1 ABS-CBN advertising revenues rebound

East Metro's first-quarter profit fell sharply by 45% compared to the same period last year, primarily due to a decline in advertising revenues. The company, which is a subsidiary of ABS-CBN, reported a significant drop in its core business, reflecting a challenging market environment. Despite the profit decline, ABS-CBN's overall advertising revenues showed a rebound, suggesting a recovery in the media and entertainment sector. The company's management is working to address the underlying issues and improve performance in the coming quarters. Analysts are closely monitoring the company's financials and market position as it navigates through the current economic conditions.

BSP urged to lower rates further

By Marissa P. Reyes

But fiscal boost also needed

Manila—The Philippine Development Bank (PDB) has urged the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) to lower interest rates further to stimulate economic growth. The PDB, which is a government-owned financial institution, said that the current interest rates are still too high for many businesses, especially small and medium enterprises (SMEs). It also pointed out that the BSP's policy rate is still higher than that of other major Asian economies.

The PDB also called for a fiscal boost to support the government's efforts to improve the business environment. It said that the government should consider providing tax incentives and other financial support to businesses that are investing in new technologies and expanding their operations. The PDB also urged the government to continue its efforts to improve the legal and regulatory framework for businesses.

The BSP, on the other hand, has said that it will continue to monitor the economic situation and adjust its interest rates as needed. It also pointed out that the current interest rates are already at a low level, and that further reductions could lead to inflationary pressures. The BSP also said that it will continue to provide technical assistance to businesses to help them improve their financial management and creditworthiness.

Tandury invests P500M in new Negros distillery

By Mary Jane

Negros Occidental—Tandury Distillers Corp. has announced a major investment of P500 million in a new distillery facility in Negros Occidental. The new facility, which is located in a prime industrial zone, will have a capacity of 100,000 liters per day. The investment is part of the company's expansion program to increase its production and distribution of spirits in the region.

First Gen eyes new gas-fired plant

Manila Inquirer

Manila—First Gen Energy Corp. is planning to build a new gas-fired power plant in the Philippines. The company, which is a leading power producer in the country, said that the new plant will have a capacity of 1,000 megawatts. The investment is part of the company's strategy to diversify its power generation portfolio and to meet the growing demand for electricity in the country.

The new plant is expected to be completed by 2006. It will be located in a coastal area, where there is a steady supply of natural gas. The plant will use advanced technology to ensure efficient and clean power generation. First Gen also said that it will continue to invest in other power projects to support the country's economic growth.

The plant will also have a cogeneration system, which will produce both electricity and steam. This will allow the plant to generate more power at a lower cost. First Gen also said that it will continue to explore other opportunities for power generation in the Philippines.

Farmers to get insurance protection against calamities

By Mary Jane

Manila—The Department of Agriculture (DA) has announced a new insurance program for farmers. The program, which is called the "Farmers' Insurance Program," will provide insurance coverage for farmers against natural calamities such as typhoons, floods, and droughts. The insurance will be provided at a subsidized rate, and the premiums will be paid by the government.

The program is part of the DA's efforts to protect farmers from the economic impact of natural calamities. It will also provide technical assistance and other support services to farmers. The DA said that the program will be implemented in a phased manner, starting with a pilot program in selected areas.

The program will also cover the loss of crops and livestock. Farmers will be able to claim compensation for their losses, which will help them recover from the impact of the calamities. The DA said that the program will be a significant step towards improving the resilience of the farming sector.

The program will also cover the loss of income. Farmers will be able to claim compensation for their lost income, which will help them maintain their livelihood. The DA said that the program will be a significant step towards improving the resilience of the farming sector.

The Women
Who Love
Endomorphs

Research of women living with HIV/AIDS found that women living with HIV/AIDS are more likely to be sexually abused than women without HIV/AIDS.

• The 1994 Journal of the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry published a study by Dr. David Reiss, University of Maryland, Baltimore, and his colleagues. The study found that children who had been sexually abused by a family member or friend were more likely to have mental health problems than those who had been sexually abused by a stranger.

Stone-grilled steak

Summer steaks
At the end of the season, the grill is the best place to cook a steak. The heat of the grill is perfect for searing the meat, and the stone surface keeps the heat even.

Appetizer and a drink
The perfect appetizer for a steak is a salad. A simple green salad with a vinaigrette dressing is perfect. A drink of beer or a glass of wine is also a good choice.

Puffy dumplings
These are a traditional Chinese dish. They are made of dough and filled with meat and vegetables. They are usually served with a dipping sauce.

Cooking advice
When cooking a steak on a stone grill, it's important to preheat the grill first. This will ensure that the steak is cooked evenly. Also, use a meat thermometer to check the internal temperature of the steak.

Grilling tips
When grilling a steak, it's important to use a meat thermometer to check the internal temperature. This will ensure that the steak is cooked to the desired level of doneness.

Meat by the way
The best meat for grilling is a thick cut of steak. This will ensure that the steak is cooked evenly and has a good texture.

Salmon is a common choice
Salmon is a popular choice for grilling. It's easy to cook and has a delicious flavor. It's also a good source of protein and omega-3 fatty acids.

Grilling with Chinese
Grilling is a popular cooking method in Chinese cuisine. It's often used for steaks, fish, and vegetables. The high heat of the grill creates a delicious char on the food.

Grilling with a stone
Grilling with a stone is a traditional method of cooking. The stone is heated in a fire and then used to cook the food. This method is often used for steaks and fish.
